Mobilization for Justice (MFJ), a non-profit legal services organization that provides a wide range of free civil legal services to low-income New Yorkers, is seeking an MSW in a part-time capacity to provide holistic services to individuals and families struggling with mental health disabilities. The Social Worker will provide supportive counseling, benefits assistance, and home visits in efforts to address the immediate needs of our clients, while simultaneously striving to address the root causes of inequity. The Social Worker will work at MFJ's Bronx office, and will collaborate closely with the attorneys, paralegals, and other advocates of the Bronx arm of MFJ.

The Social Worker will have the opportunity to obtain clinical hours, while working four days a week, with the ability to work at least one day a week remotely.

MFJ's mission is to achieve social justice, prioritizing the needs of people who are low-income, disenfranchised, or have disabilities. We do this by providing the highest quality direct civil legal assistance, conducting community education, and building partnerships, engaging in policy advocacy, and bringing impact litigation. MFJ is a 130+ person staff comprised of attorneys, paralegals, social workers, and support staff. It is a diverse, unionized, and collegial workplace where staff share the organization's mission to achieve social justice, and where we work hand-in-hand with our clients to ensure that our practice reflects the needs and desires of the communities we serve.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Providing case management support to individuals and families who are receiving legal services from MFJ attorneys and paralegals;
- Providing crisis intervention, assessments and referrals to individuals with a wide range of mental health, substance use, physical disabilities, and psychosocial concerns.
- Advocating on behalf of our clients to access public benefits, social services, and medical care, in addition to other systems impacting our clients;
- Providing supervision and support to two graduate-level social work students;
- Conducting home visits to clients to assess housing conditions, assess client needs, and provide case management assistance throughout the Bronx.

Requirements:

- A demonstrated passion for social justice and a commitment to working with low-income communities and communities of color to advance equity;
- Master of Social Work degree, New York State license, and three years of experience as a social worker;
- SIFI certified or SIFI eligible;
- Experience providing case management to vulnerable populations;

- Familiarity with New York City (NYC) institutions and social service systems;
- Experience providing client advocacy related to housing and benefits;
- Knowledge of and comfort working with people who experience mental health, substance use, illness-related and trauma-related conditions;
- Experience providing psychosocial assessments, short term counseling and crisis intervention;
- Outstanding organizational, interpersonal, writing and time management skills;
- Ability to balance an active caseload and travel between MFJ's offices, outreach sites, agency offices and courts;
- Fluency in Spanish is required.

Salary is pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement. In addition to a competitive salary, the Social Worker will have access to MFJ's generous benefits package, including health benefits with no employee contribution to the cost; dental, vision, long-term disability and life insurance; pre-tax flex spending account and a transit check/voucher program; and participation in a 403(b) tax deferred annuity plan to which MFJ contributes 7.5% of your salary after your one-year anniversary. The Social Worker also will receive 26 vacation days, two floating holidays, and 14 designated holidays each year.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, resume and writing sample to Rick Kahn, Bronx Office Managing Attorney, and transmit by e-mail to rkahn@mfjlegal.org by March 31, 2022. Please indicate where you found this ad and include BRONX MSW in the Subject Line. We encourage all applicants to include in their cover letter a statement about how your background or experience might contribute to the diversity and perspective of our office.
