JOB ANNOUNCEMENT
SUPERVISING ATTORNEY – MOBILIZATION FOR JUSTICE, INC.

Mobilization for Justice (formerly MFY Legal Services), a non-profit legal services organization that provides a wide range of free civil legal services to low-income New Yorkers, is seeking a supervising attorney to lead a team of lawyers and paralegals that serves the legal needs of people with mental health disabilities, with the goal of preserving housing and ensuring that people receive the benefits to which they are entitled. The team represents people in various courts; works collectively with advocacy groups; and conducts trainings for the courts, hospitals, and community groups.

Responsibilities:

- Supervise attorneys and paralegals who handle a range of civil legal problems, including those related to housing and government benefits.
- Work closely with community and hospital-based mental health providers, including those with whom MFJ has a medical-legal partnership.
- Manage and report on government contracts and other grants.
- Addressing systemic problems through policy, advocacy and/or impact litigation is supported but not required.

Requirements:

- Litigation experience in state and/or federal court.
- Knowledge of housing law and/or government benefits.
- Excellent research, writing, and editing skills.
- Leadership, teambuilding, and mentoring skills.
- Highly organized with excellent time management skills.

Salary: Commensurate with experience, with excellent fringe benefits.

Applicants should submit cover letter, resume and writing sample to Kevin M. Cremin, transmitted by e-mail to kcremin@mfjlegal.org with “SUPERVISING ATTORNEY” in the subject line. We encourage all applicants to include in their cover letter a statement about how their background or experience might contribute to the diversity and perspective of our office. Please indicate where you saw this ad. Applications must be received by July 19, 2019. Early applications encouraged. No telephone calls please.
